

Statement of Purpose

To
The Visa officer,
High Commission of Canada, New Delhi
Subject: Application for Canadian Work Visa
Respected Madam/Sir,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Nidhi Mehta, an Indian resident with passport number Z2471264. I am excited to introduce myself and share my aspirations for a lucrative work opportunity in Canada. I have been offered the position of <add> in the <add> Department at <add>, and I am writing this letter to formally apply for a work permit to work freely in Canada. I hereby wish to bring to your notice that my previous visa application was rejected due to the following reasons:

- You do not have significant family ties outside Canada.
- The purpose of your visit to Canada is not consistent with a temporary stay given the details you have provided in your application.
- Your current employment situation does not show that you are financially established in your country of residence.
- Your immigration status outside your country of nationality or habitual residence.

Purpose of visit

My academic journey led me to get a management education, which served as the foundation for my career. I have over seventeen years of experience working in the departments of administration, retail, and consumer banking including but not limited to client servicing, business development, marketing, and channel management.

As of now, I have been actively working as an Administrative at Projeco Contracting LLC in the UAE. Throughout my seventeen years of professional experience, I have been involved in supporting various clientele and departments. These experiences have motivated me to seek an opportunity in the <add> Department of <add company> as a <add designation>.

Information about the Employment Offers in Canada

I am delighted to share the details of my job offer in Canada. <add company> has extended a job offer for the position of <add designation>, and I am eager to fulfill this role. I will report directly to <add your reporting manager's name> at <address>. I will be receiving a starting wage of <add> per hour for this full-time position, paid <add either monthly or bi-monthly>. I have signed a full-time contract with <company name>, and I am committed to being a loyal and dedicated employee during my time in Canada.

Information about the current employment

I have been working as an Administrative Assistant at Projeco Contracting LLC since November 2021. I receive a salary of AED <add> every month. However, as I wasn't a confirmed employee until March 2022, I received my salary in cash and I carry the cash voucher slips with me. I utilized a portion of my salary to to save in my bank account and I am proud to share that I have AED 27,900 in my savings account.

Family ties

I am fortunate to have the unwavering support of my family throughout my professional journey. With their encouragement, I am now embarking on this work opportunity in Canada. My husband and son will continue to remain in the UAE until I complete my contractual obligation and return to India permanently where they will join me so we can live together forever. Until I am away, my parents and in-laws will continue to visit my husband and son as the distance between India and the UAE is less. It will help them care for my son and support my husband with a familial bond. My son is at a tender age, so it is preferable that I leave him with my husband so his schedule remains intact and he doesn't have to adjust to a new environment entirely. Also, this will help me in dedicating myself to work fearlessly and I am sure to focus on my career which is highly needed as of now.

Enclosed with this application are all the necessary supporting documents, including my employment letter with comprehensive offer details. I kindly request your consideration in granting me a work permit for Canada, which will enable me to pursue my professional aspirations within the country.

Reasons to return to India

Familial bonding

I have a huge family back home which confirms my temporary stay in Canada. My parents and in-laws are old and as a responsible daughter and daughter-in-law, it is my duty to look after them as they grow older. Likewise, my son is quite young and he will need my constant support and togetherness as she grows up while my husband is my soulmate and we have many personal goals to achieve together. All of this gives me a combined reason to return to my roots and stay with my family in India. Also, we have decent immovable properties which will be transferred to me and my husband. We are legally bound to take care of our assets so we can gift the same to the next generation.

Career enhancement

After having worked in Canada, I will be more valued in the Indian job market because of the exposure that I would carry with me. International exposure is highly regarded in my country and we have the majority of international companies operating in our home country which gives me decent reasoning to seek career progression back home. My annual emoluments would be somewhere around INR 25,00,000 which is a very huge sum to relaunch myself. Also, my exposure will help me in attaining a position in the C-suite. I envision such a fruitful career and beyond after returning to my country.

Why Canada?

Canada has established itself as a pioneering nation, particularly in terms of employment and opportunities. <add company name>, as one of the prominent companies, stands out as a leading player based in Canada. Working with such a significant company in an area that aligns with my interests would be truly gratifying. I look forward to contributing to Canada's multicultural work environment, which will undoubtedly foster my professional growth and enrich my portfolio.

Conclusion and Final Appeal

In conclusion, I have outlined the reasons why I am eager to obtain a work permit in Canada. I have provided my employment letter and other relevant details to support my application. I humbly request you to evaluate my application and consider granting me a work permit for Canada, allowing me to serve <add company> in this country. I am eagerly awaiting a positive response from your end.

Thank you for your thoughtful consideration and valuable time.

Yours Sincerely,
Yachika Manchanda
